To Whom It May Concern:

I write this letter in recommendation of Jason Greenspan and his company (PF&W) Practical Fitness & Wellness.

I was an owner/resident at The Copley Condominium and Club (2000 Broadway) where Mr. Greenspan started his fitness company. The level of professionalism and dedication that his company provided to our condo was unparalleled to any health club condominium I have seen in my 8 years of selling real estate and running in and out of buildings.

In my professional and personal opinion, Mr. Greenspan's company offers a very unique and customized service that would be a huge asset to any condo health club. I recommend him highly to manage any residential building health club throughout NYC or for that matter throughout the country.

If you have any questions, I can be reached at 212-769-6553 or jecohen@elliman.com.

Sincerely,
